"Alley is a talented entertainer who embraces live theater in a comical diva fashion that is reminiscent of Carol Burnett."

-The Hollywood Gazette

Former Mouseketeer, Lindsey Alley, is single-handedly reinventing the Great American Club Act.

During this memorable evening of booze, belting and belly laughs, Lindsey takes us on a comedic musical journey... and her hilarious quest for the elusive "Happily Ever After." Brace yourself, as Lindsey puts her Disney image on the shelf and lets it all hang out...prompting her mother's unsolicited stock apology, "I tried. I tried and I failed!"

Lindsey Alley is a crowd favorite. Having played all over the country, as well as internationally, she has appeared everywhere from 54 Below in New York City and The Blue Moon in Rehoboth Beach, to Epcot's World ShowPlace Pavilion in Orlando and the world-famous Comedy Store in Los Angeles.

"Lindsey Alley is charming, funny, a teensy bit scandalous and sings her face off! All I can say is "WOW"!"

-Jeff Kiltie, Event Director, Aventura Arts & Cultural Center

"There are very few entertainers who are able to truly connect with people the way Lindsey does. Not only does she win audiences over with her endless charm, her beautiful voice, and her bawdy sense of humor, but she has a way of touching them in completely unexpected ways. She's a totally unique talent in a world that needs more of them."

-Randle Roper, CEO, VACAYA

"Bringing Lindsey Alley to perform at Highlands Playhouse was like finally finding The Perfect Date: Hilariously funny, wickedly smart, heart-breakingly attractive, and she even had good table manners—all that and no Walk-of-Shame!"

-D. V. Caitlyn, Producing Artistic Director, Highlands Playhouse
